

Games for online lessons

<https://thewordsearch.com/hangman> Classic game. Tutor will share screen and fill in the answers.

<https://www.esolcourses.com/content/exercises/crosswords/crossword.html> Leveled crossword puzzles with British spellings. Lower level clues are pictures.

<http://iteslj.org/cw/>

More crossword puzzles, but if you go to the home link in the top corner, the website also has grammar quizzes

<https://www.gamestolearnenglish.com/>

online games to be used together or solo

Logic Puzzles for mid to high level students

<https://www.brainzilla.com/logic/logic-grid/>

Other games (not necessarily educational)

<http://playingcards.io/>

<https://randomwordgenerator.com/pictionary.php>

<https://skribbl.io/> - Pictionary game. Be sure to create a private room. (If you don't have an ad blocker on your computer you will likely have to watch an ad first) Type in custom words and then click the "Use custom words exclusively" box. Share the link under the "invite your friends!" headline with your student. Then click "Start Game".

<https://scattergoriesonline.net/> - Click Play Game, Choose your categories, Click create new game, Make your selections for the game and be sure to click "invited friends" under the can join section. Click create new game, It will then provide you with the link to share.

<https://www.boggle.online/> - Use screen share and have your student call out the letters to make words.

<https://www.newreaderspress.com/news-for-you-online> - Use the crossword puzzle feature that accompanies the news. LVCA's password is: OC4FB2